In addition to the questions laid out in the grant application, please also answer the following. The supplemental funds should be used to add on to the project you described in the grant application. YOU DO NOT NEED TO DEVELOP A NEW PLAN/PROJECT.

In the following questions, you will describe how your project will fulfill the mission, vision, and values of Recover Alaska.

MISSION:

Reducing excessive alcohol use and harm.

VISION:

Alaskans live free from the consequence of alcohol abuse so we are empowered to achieve our full potential.

VALUES:

Collaboration- Together we are greater than the sum of our parts.

Respect- Affirming every person's inherent worth.

Change- Alaskans working together can impact the wellbeing of our state.

Project Description

How does Recover Alaska's Mission, Vision, or one of the Values fit into your project?

Please describe the specific ways that the planned activities, as outlined in the “Youth Mini-Grant Application”, will engage your community to also further our vision of all Alaskans living free from the consequences of alcohol misuse and abuse.

How will the supplemental funds be used toward your main goals?

How will your project build on what is already happening in your community (if anything) that addresses alcohol use and harms?

Project Funding

How much supplemental funding are you requesting and how do you plan to use the funds?
